Duties of Committee Members

Committee Members are required to act diligently, competently, honestly and in good faith in what they consider to be in the best interests of the club. Committee Members are expected to attend all meetings of the club and acquire the skills and knowledge they need so they can effectively guide and monitor the management of the club. Committee Members need to consider independently matters that come to the Committee, make informed decisions, avoid conflicts of interest, and not make improper use of information or their position. Committee Members are required to prevent the club incurring a debt if there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the club is insolvent at the time the debt is incurred or would become insolvent by incurring the debt and they must exercise their powers for proper purpose.

Candidates should note that:

1. GSNC Committee members are bound by GSNC club Mission Statement, Policy, all behavioural codes and take a firm undertaking to conduct all business for the development of the club as a sporting organization.
2. They are expected to provide a firm undertaking to members that they can and will attend almost all Committee and General meetings.
3. Committee Members represent all club members and are required to act in the best interests of the club. Committee members are not permitted to participate in decisions about matters that would give rise to a conflict of interests.
4. Matters discussed by the Committee may be confidential and information provided to Committee Members should not be forwarded or generally divulged to other parties.
5. Committee members must be aware of their duties and responsibilities. Requirements of club officials: Before lodging this nomination, candidates are expected to read the information in the Australian Sports commission website: www.ausport.gov.au and the Victorian Not For Profit Compliance website: www.nfpcompliance.vic.gov.au>sport
6. GSNC committee members are also bound by Netball Victoria and WCNA codes of conduct
